ALUMNI MEET

Under the able guidance of Principal Prof. (Dr.) Nisha Aggarwal, The Ambassadors' Alumni Association of PGGCG-42, fervently organized an Alumni Meet today. The Council Members of the Association extended a green welcome to the Chief Guest Ms. Kamala Dalal, member of the Indian National Women's Hockey Team that won Silver Medal in 1998 Asian Games. She addressed the alumni, shared her inspiring life story and emphasized on the importance of being connected with one's alma mater. The President of the Association Ms. Shilpa Singhal requested the girls to become an active part of the Association and visit the college more often. She also implored everyone to promote fellow-feeling and stay connected with each other. General Secretary Dr. Nidhi Rana spoke in detail about the inception of the Association and also introduced the acting members of the Executive Council of the Association. The students staged lively cultural performances that included a Bollywood Medley and Terah Tali folk Dance. The Annual Registration Drive was also conducted along with a Cultural Programme. The former President of the College Student Council Ms. Sheenam Rawat, delivered the Vote of Thanks. It was attended by more than 700 alumni. The Alumni Interface proved to be very successful.
