6.	Faculty- Upgrading of Skills and Competencies	38-40

Various initiatives have been taken to create an ecosystem for innovations, creation and transfer of knowledge. The details are as follows:

- Collaborations: A MoU has been signed with Auburn University, Montgomery to carry out joint Research activities, exchange of information and joint participation in internationally funded projects.
- Industry Institute Partnership: The College has MoUs with Xeam Ventures and Eco Laboratories & Consultants Pvt. Ltd. to provide possible training and placement avenues in the field of Human Resource Management and Environment Sciences and related studies respectively.
- Research Centre: Approved as Research Centre in Zoology by Panjab University, Chandigarh
- Students-Holistic Development: A vital source of creation and transfer of knowledge are the Field/Industrial visits workshops/ webinars/ Seminars/ Conferences on research related topics which are conducted regularly. Students are encouraged to organize/participate in various fests/competitions/events like Pranshu Anmol Comenzar Fest, Osmium IT Fest, Talent Hunt, Youth Adalat, Athletic-Meet, etc. to display their innate talents and skills. Celebrations like Environment Day, Akshay Urja Diwas, Van Mahotsava, Ozone Protection Day, Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan, Environment Conservation Fest and Wildlife Week etc. sensitize students on environment conservation issues. Students of M.Sc. IT, Functional English undergo industrial training/Internship/or take up research projects to further enhance their knowledge. The college magazine 'Shikhar' and the functional English Newsletter 'Scoop' and activities like Friday Fables and Tele Tuesdays provide an apt platform to the students and faculty for creating and sharing knowledge. The placement cell, the Women Cell and the 12 societies of the college as also NCC, NSS units through an array of sensitization drives, extension lectures, visits etc. create a robust environment where dissemination of knowledge takes place on a regular basis.
- Supporting Infrastructure and Facilities: The available infrastructure and facilities provide an enabling environment to learn, implement and innovate. There are 39 well-equipped laboratories that include a state-of-the-art research lab for life sciences, IT labs, and science labs, separate labs for functional English, Functional Hindi, and Performing Arts etc. These laboratories have ICT facilities. The College has a 100 Mbps leased line and provides high-speed Wi-Fi connectivity. The college library facilitates knowledge sharing and innovation. It provides access to e-Books & Journals through DELNET, NDLI & INFLIBNET, and subscription to URKUND for plagiarism check, subscription to VIDWAN-a database of faculty research work. It also caters to the needs of the visually disabled with JAWS i.e. a Braille Software and Daisy Reader. To provide a serene and concentrated environment there are separate Cabins for PG/ Research Scholars in the library.
- Faculty- Upgrading of Skills and Competencies: The IQAC cell of the college informs, facilitates and conducts various seminars, conferences, symposiums etc. on a regular basis In the last five years, the faculty has undertaken 8 minor and major research projects. They are guiding research scholars and actively participate in conferences/seminars/workshops etc. The faculty has a number of Research Publications, books, edited books, chapters and papers published in National and International Conference Proceedings to their credit. Faculty members have undergone ICT training ranging from 5 days to 4 weeks.
