WORKSHOP ON GST HELD AT PGGCG-42

CHANDIGARH : A one-day capacity building workshop on 'GST and its impact on the economy' was held at Post Graduate Government College for Girls, Sector 42 on Tuesday. The first technical session was conducted by advocate Ajay Jagga. He traced the historical perspective of taxes since 'dvapara yuga'. A fellow of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, Alok Krishan, talked about technicality of GST and its impact on Indian economy in short and long run. Excise and taxation officer, Manreet Kaur shared her experience regarding levying, administering and implementing VAT and now GST.

The Tribune - 13-01-2017

Post Graduate Government College for Girls

A one-day capacity building programme for supporting staff on good practices on sanitation and hygiene was organised by the college on their campus in Sector 42 under the aegis of the RUSA in collaboration with the department of home science. Principal Binu Dogra inaugurated the workshop and motivated the supporting staff of the college to adopt good practices to make the college clean and beautiful. The workshop was conducted by Dr Amarjeet Singh, professor, community medicine, PGI, Chandigarh, in an interesting manner. An informative lecture on food safety was delivered by Sukhwinder Singh, Designated Officer, Food Safety and Standards Department, Chandigarh Administration. A play was enacted by Ravinder and his team to highlight the importance of sanitation and hygiene. Over 60 participants attended the event. —TNS
