Agenda for Tutorial

22/10/2019

1. As per UGC guidelines, the college has established CSGRC (Collegiate Student Grievance Redressal Committee) to address the issues of the students.
 2. The students can register their grievances online at gcg42chd@yahoo.com.
 3. Important: The students should read the documents carefully regarding the list of grievances & how to register the complaint online at www.ugc.ac.in.
 4. Any wrong /fake complaint will not be entertained.
 5. On a happy note, we have just hosted the Youth & Heritage Festival, Zone B from 24th to 27th Sept 2019. We have won 12-1st positions, 16-2nd positions and 22-3rd positions in different categories. The successful culmination of this fest was due to the cooperation of students & the staff of the college.
 6. Cautionary note: There will be no special tests for students securing less than 25% marks in aggregate. The concerned teachers will conduct class tests for the same.
 7. Students having less than 75% attendance in UG/PG classes will be detained and will have to appear privately.
- PS: Teachers are requested to please discuss the above mentioned points seriously.

AGENDA FOR TUTORIAL ON 15/9/18

Campus Swachhata

- Do not leave torn papers, empty refills and pens in the class rooms.
 - Eatables should not be consumed in the classrooms.
 - Switch off lights and fans once the class is over.
 - Keep mobiles switched off during class.
 - It has been observed that girls used foul language in conversation and on social media, eg on WhatsApp groups etc: students should be advised to avoid this behavior.
 - Green and Blue dustbins have been provided on the campus for Wet and Dry waste. These should be used to keep the campus clean.
 - Students should not misuse the electronic equipments i.e. computers, speakers, LEDs etc. installed in the college.
 - Important notices should not be torn off from the notice boards.
 - Please leave used plates cups etc. in the canteen or in the containers meant for the same.
 - Students should be advised that they should be vigilant about the above and are free to check those who litter the campus.
 - A govt. team for assessing the cleanliness of the campus will be visiting the college soon. Students should not complain to them regarding any cleanliness/ hygiene/ drinking water issues. These should be placed in the suggestion/ complaint box or conveyed to the teachers.
- National Human Rights Commission has requested all students to take online Human Rights pledge by visiting <https://pledge.mygov.in/nhrc/>

- Since the pledge is mandatory for all please instruct the students to complete it as soon as possible. Any clarification can be sought from Mr. Mohit (Pub Admn.).

2. Washroom Hygiene

- Students should not flush down used sanitary napkins in the toilets as this clogs the drains.
- Dispose off the used sanitary napkins, wrapped in old newspapers in the big steel dustbins provided in the washrooms.
- Students should be advised to bring old newspapers from home for this purpose.
- Sanitary napkins should NOT be thrown anywhere else except in the dustbins meant for this purpose.
- Sanitary napkins vending machines are installed in the washrooms. Students can make use of them.
- Students should be advised to use the washrooms hygienically.
