

SRISHTI- ENVIRONMENT SOCIETY- POSTGRADUATE GOVT. COLLEGE FOR GIRLS, SECTOR-42, CHANDIGARH
Activities Conducted during Session 2024-2025

S.No	Date	Activity	Venue	Chief Guest/ Resource Person	Number	Remarks	Glimpses
1.	12th April, 2024	Earth Day	Mini Conference Room	Principal Prof. Nisha Aggarwal Dean, Mr. Suresh Kumar	120	To commemorate World Earth Day, a Declamation Contest and a Stone Painting Competition were thoughtfully organized on the theme of environmental protection and sustainable living. Through powerful speeches and creative artwork, participants expressed their views, showcased their talent, and reaffirmed their commitment to safeguarding the Earth for future generations.

2.	5th June 2024	World Environment Day	Auditorium Lounge Park	Mr. Prabhunath Shahi, Founder of Jai Madhusudan & Jai Shri Krishna Foundation,	53	In collaboration with Jai Madhusudan & Jai Shri Krishna Foundation, a program was planned where Mr. Prabhunath Shahi delivers an awareness talk focusing on the planning, preparation, participation, plantation, and protection of trees. The Tree Ambulance of the JMJSK Foundation visited the college campus for an organic spray to protect the trees.
----	---------------	-----------------------	------------------------	--	----	--	---

	6th-7th, July, 2024	Paudh Mela	Sukhna Lake Chandigarh	Chief Guest- UT Administrator, Sh. Rajiv Verma,	6	Taking an environmental initiative forward, students and faculty jointly established a stall demonstrating how to make bioenzymes and compost from kitchen waste during the ‘Paudh Mela’held at Sukhna Lake Club Parking Area. The event was organized by Chandigarh Administration. The initiative aimed to encourage visitors to adopt eco-friendly methods for reducing waste and enriching soil health.
--	------------------------	------------	---------------------------	---	---	--	---

	12th July, 2024	Van Mahotsava	New Girls Hostel	Principal, Prof. Binu Dogra Prof.Lakhbir Singh , ASPD, RUSA	130	A total of 210 saplings were planted in the vicinity of the upcoming Girls' Hostel as a significant step towards enhancing green cover and creating a healthier campus environment. Additionally, a Nukkad Natak was organized on the theme "Importance of Trees for a Sustainable Life", where students creatively showcased the crucial role of trees in maintaining ecological balance and supporting life on Earth..
--	-----------------	---------------	------------------	--	-----	--	---

	8th August, 2024	Plantation Drive under social responsibility		Mr. Rohit , Director Madrix Pharmaceuticals and their Staff		A Plantation Drive was conducted as part of the institution's social responsibility initiative, in collaboration with Madrix Pharmaceutical. Representatives from the organization, along with volunteers from the college, planted a variety of saplings and emphasized the role of medicinal and native plant species in improving air quality and supporting biodiversity.
	14th August, 2024	Akshay Urja Diwas	Mini Conference Room	Dr. Surender Kumar, Director Metrological Dept, Chandigarh Administration	130	An awareness lecture on Energy Conservation by using alternatives of fossil fuels , Quiz competition and awareness rally has been organized.

19th August, 2024	Variksha bandhan	campus	Principal, Prof. Binu Dogra and member of Advisory Committee	74	Vrikshabandhan, an eco-friendly initiative that symbolizes the bond between humans and nature, was celebrated like Raksha Bandhan. Teachers and students tie sacred rakhi around trees, pledging to protect and nurture them. It encourages communities, especially students, to take responsibility for conserving greenery. Vrikshabandhan serves as a reminder of our duty to safeguard nature for future generations.
16th-17th September 2024	World Ozone Day	Porch Area	Prof. Binu Dogra and Faculty	256	A powerful message was conveyed by teacher and student members of 'Srishti' through the formation of a Human Chain with Umbrellas where they came together to symbolize unity in the fight against ozone depletion and climate change. Holding placards with slogans such as "Heal the Sky, Protect the Ozone," the participants pledged to contribute to environmental

						sustainability in their daily lives. Participants held umbrellas to symbolize the ozone layer as a protective shield for humanity.
6	26th September, 2024	World Environmental Health Day: A Call to Protect Our Planet and Health	Porch Area		25	World Environmental Health Day, celebrated annually on September 26, highlights the vital connection between human health and the environment. It is a reminder that the health of individuals, communities, and future generations is inseparably linked to the well-being of our planet
7	7th October, 2024	National Wildlife Week	Mini Conference Room	Shri Jagdish Singh Diwan, Social Activist and Founder of NGO Support a Girl Child	110	Awareness Lecture and Declamation Contest was organized on the topic - The Silent Sufferers- Impact of water pollution on wildlife

	10th October ,2024	One Day Workshop on Sustainable Development Goals		Chief Guest, Sh.T.C.Nautiyal IFS, Director, Dept. of Environment, Sh. Navneet Kumar Srivastava, IFS, Additional Director, Department of Environment, Chandigarh, Resource persons were Dr. Vivek Trivedi, Social Development Officer, MC Dept. Chandigarh	400	Srishti' Environment Society under the aegis of IQAC organised it in partnership with Chandigarh Administration Around 150 Eco- Club Incharges and 240 students from various schools of the city have participated. The event was aimed to raise awareness and facilitate discussions on embedding sustainable practices across different sectors.
	18th October, 2024	Oath of not using Crackers	Respective classrooms		600	Ahead of Diwali celebrations, students and faculty members collectively took a “No-Cracker Oath” to promote a pollution-free and safe festival. The pledge aimed to discourage the use of firecrackers, reduce air and noise pollution, and encourage environmentally responsible festivities.

7	23rd January, 2025	Workshop on Nutrition and Ayurveda	Auditorium	Ms.Monica Malik,Nutritional Therapist and Nutritional Coach and Mr. Om Parkash, Principal Coordinator, Eco-Clubs Chandigarh Administration	300	an interactive dimension to the event, live demonstration stalls showcasing various herbs and herbal products were set up for stakeholders. These stalls provided a hands-on experience, introducing attendees to the medicinal properties of herbs and their applications in promoting wellness. The vibrant display was a major attraction, inspiring participants to embrace natural and sustainable health practices.
	3rd February, 2025	World Wetlands Day	Mini Conference Room		120	Two engaging competitions organized Declamation Competition – "Wetlands: Natural Superpowers for a Sustainable Future" and PowerPoint Presentation – "Role of Wetlands in Climate Change Mitigation and

						Adaptation"
8th February, 2025	"Web Tech" - A One-Day Skill-Based Workshop on Website Development	Conference Room, IT Block	Prof. Poonam Aggarwal, Dr. Nemi Chand	56	The event was organized by Dept. of Environment in collaboration with the Department of Computer Application under the aegis of IIC Cell and IQAC Students were shortlisted for hands-on training in website development where they enhanced their technical proficiency through interactive sessions and practical implementation. The top five positions were awarded certificates of appreciation and trophies by madam principal.

	1st-7th March,2025.	Eco-Consciousness Drive	College campus		300	An Eco-Consciousness Drive was conducted on campus, during which volunteers actively engaged the campus community in spreading awareness about mindful waste disposal and the importance of segregating waste at source. They also demonstrated innovative eco-brick making techniques, encouraging students and staff to manage plastic waste responsibly by converting non-recyclable plastic into useful building materials.
	7th March,2025	Workshop on waste segregation & management in campus		Dr. Charul Sharma, Climate Change Cell, Chandigarh	145	A presentation on Waste Segregation and Management was conducted on campus to enhance environmental awareness among students and staff. The session focused on the importance of properly segregating waste into

					biodegradable, recyclable, and non-recyclable categories to ensure efficient disposal and reduce the burden on landfills. Participants were informed about the campus waste management practices, including composting, recycling, and responsible handling of plastic.	 Chandigarh, Chandigarh, India Sector 42D, Chandigarh, Chandigarh 160036, India Lat 30.725316, Long 76.738404 03/07/2025 11:35 AM GMT+05:30 Note : Captured by GPS Map Camera
--	--	--	--	--	--	---

Sunita K...
Convener

Mandah
Principal